

WELCOME LETTER

Dear Visitor,

Whether you're visiting here for business, vacation, or have lived here for years, we welcome you and hope you find your visit to this website a pleasant one. We encourage you to use this website to assist you in finding information about the Town of Lyman and this area.

Welcome to the Town of Lyman's website. Lyman, South Carolina is located in the Northwestern part of Spartanburg County which is made up of thirteen towns and cities. According to the 2010 Census, excluding Greer, Lyman was big in population growth as the fastest growing municipalities in Spartanburg County.

Excluding Reidville, Lyman has the lowest property tax millage at 54.6 mills, with no added fees with providing the following services:

- Our own 24/7 Police Department
- Fire protection (Fire services provided by (Tyger River Fire Department)
- Streets Maintenance includes pick-up of garbage, yard waste and household good within the city limits
- _Lyman is also a regional sewer provider for Lyman, Duncan and Wellford

Lyman boasts a former armory building converting in a rental facility for weddings and meeting complete with a commercial catering kitchen. We also have a park down by the Middle Tyger River Library. A 450 seat amphitheatre, with a 70 foot stage. We also converted a former railroad spur into a walking trail. A second phase to add to the trail is currently in the works. In addition we have plans for an all inclusive playground to be added on two and one half acre site adjacent to the Town Hall building to be completed by April 2018.

On behalf of myself, and the entire Town Council we welcome you. Stay around and take a good look, we think you will be pleasantly surprised.

Sincerely,

Larry Chappell, Mayor
Town of Lyman
